

You are staying in Belgium, you do not have the Belgian nationality and you find yourself in one or more of these situations:

- » The situation you are in is different from what was promised to you before you arrived here.
- » You are forced to do things you do not want to do.
- » Your pay is much lower than the pay you were promised, you are hardly paid or not paid at all for the work you do.
- » You have been forced to work in order to pay your journey by (or at the request of) the people who brought you here.
- » You and/or your family are being threatened and/or you are a victim of violence.
- » Your papers were taken away from you or are being withheld.
- » You are locked up most of the time. You live completely isolated from the outside world.
- » You arrived in Belgium after a long journey that has cost you a lot of money, and you have also been a victim of violence or your life has been put at risk.

If you wish, either we or you can contact a centre specialised in the reception and guidance of victims of trafficking in human beings.

Do not hesitate to contact one of the following centres. They will provide you with information on the assistance they can offer and will give you more details about the specific procedure for victims of trafficking in human beings.

PAG-ASA : ☎ 02/511.64.64 – Brussels – info@pag-asa.be

PAYOKE : ☎ 03/201.16.90 – Antwerp – admin@payoke.be

SÜRYA : ☎ 04/232.40.30 – Liège – info@asblsurya.be

What can the reception centre do for you?

It can:

- » offer you a safe shelter;
- » provide you with various forms of support and assistance (medical, social, psychological, legal assistance).

The centre will also explain to you the conditions to legally stay in Belgium. One of these conditions is to provide the police with relevant information on those who exploited you.

Regarding this last condition, you can take some time to think about it once under the care of the reception centre.

*The reception centre can be reached 24 hours a day.
